

What God can do in all of us

This is a talk I heard on radio 4 in the Autumn:

A disabled girl said ‘My family always prayed for me to be better, to walk and see, and I thought . . . am I not special to them as I am? Do they want someone else?’

Extract from Radio 4 interview

Following the achievements of the paralympic sports athletes and hearing some of them say the disablement gave them the motivation to do their best, I re visited my prayer time and think more carefully about what God can do in all of us.
