

ST PETER & ST PAUL'S CHURCH, AYLESFORD

Remembrance
Sunday

14th November 2021, 10am

Welcome

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Matthew 5.9

Opening Prayer

We come together today to remember.
To remember with thanks those who have given their lives in service of others.
To remember with sadness the suffering, destruction and pain caused by human conflict.
We come also to commit ourselves to be peacemakers and peacekeepers wherever we can.

In the name of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ, we offer our intent. Amen.

Hymn

All my hope on God is founded;
he doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
only good and only true.
God unknown, he alone
calls my heart to be his own.

Human pride and earthly glory,
sword and crown betray his trust;
what with care and toil he buildeth,
tow'r and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power, hour by hour,
is my temple and my towe'r.

God's great goodness aye endureth,
deep his wisdom, passing thought:
splendour, light and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore, from his store
new-born worlds rise and adore.

Still from earth to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call one and all:
ye who follow shall not fall.

Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

Prayers of Penitence

Lord God our Father, maker of all:
we praise you for your wondrous work
of creation.
Forgive us when we use your gifts poorly.
Enable us to build a society where all may thrive.

Silence

Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God,
Prince of Peace:
we thank you for your life among us.
Forgive us when we fail to live together as one family.

Help us to dwell together in love and peace, seeking one another's welfare, bearing one another's burdens, and sharing one another's joys.

Silence

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Holy Spirit, Lord of grace, fulfiller of humanity:
forgive us when we fail to change our ways.
Give us strength to face the future, and wisdom to learn from the past as we remember those who have given their lives in the service of justice and peace.

Silence

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Absolution

May the God of love and power forgive you and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by his Spirit, and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Collect

God, our refuge and strength, bring near the day when wars shall cease
and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Micah 4.1-5

In the last days the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and peoples will stream to it.

Many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths."

The law will go out from Zion, the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. He will judge between many peoples and will settle disputes for strong nations far and wide. They will beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any more. Every man will sit under his own vine and under his own fig-tree, and no-one will make them afraid, for the Lord Almighty has spoken. All the nations may walk in the name of their gods; we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn

Be still, my soul: the Lord is at your side;
bear patiently the cross of grief and pain;
leave to your God to order and provide;
in every change he faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul: your best, your heav'nly friend,
through thorny ways, leads to a joyful end.
Be still, my soul: your God will undertake to guide the future as he has the past.
Your hope, your confidence let nothing shake,
all now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: the tempests still obey
his voice, who ruled them once on Galilee.
Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on when we shall be for ever with the Lord, when disappointment, grief and fear are gone,
sorrow forgotten, love's pure joy restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past
all safe and blessèd we shall meet at last.

Katherina von Schlegel (b 1697)

Gospel Reading

Mark 13.1-8

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher! What massive stones! What magnificent buildings!"

"Do you see all these great buildings?" replied Jesus. "Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to be fulfilled?"

Jesus said to them: "Watch out that no-one deceives you. Many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and will deceive many. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth-pains."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Affirmation of Faith

Let us declare our faith in God.

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.

We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high.

We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Hymn

Hope for the world's despair:
we feel the nations' pain;
can anything repair
this broken earth again?
For this we pray: in every place
a spark of grace to light the way.

Wisdom for all who bear
the future in their hand, entrusted with the care
of this and every land.
When comes the hour, O Lord, we pray,
inspire the way we spend our power.

Honour for all who've paid
war's painful, bitter price, when duty called they made the greatest sacrifice.
Their memory will never cease to cry for peace and harmony.

Ease for the troubled mind
in endless conflict caught, each soul that cannot find
the peace beyond all thought.
May they be blessed with healing balm for inner calm and perfect rest.

Love for the human heart:
when hate grows from our fears and inwardly we start to turn our ploughs to spears.
Help us to sow love's precious seed
in word and deed, that peace may grow.

Prayers

Response

May God give peace

God give peace

Ending with

O God of truth and justice, we hold before you those whose memory we cherish, and those whose names we will never know. Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm. As we honour the past, may we put our faith in your future; for you are the source of life and hope, now and for ever.

Amen.

Gathering our prayers into one, let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come;
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn

When the guns of war fell silent, weary soldiers cheered and sang.
In the streets of towns and cities crowds rejoiced and church bells rang.
Row on row of limestone crosses
now recall the sacrifice.
We remember, we will treasure
peace, that comes at such a price.

On a dark Judaeen hillside crosses silhouette the sky,
where the Son of God was taken,
crucified and left to die.
He was wounded for our healing,
gave his life that we might live,
deepest mercy, reconciling
peace, that nothing less could give.

When will all the guns be silent?
How we long for war to cease.
From the ruins of each conflict rises up our prayer for peace.
May the selfless love of Jesus give us hope at last to see all the nations, celebrating peace, when all the world is free.

Offertory Prayer

Gracious God,
You call us to let go of the things we cling to and step out in faith, trusting in your love and provision. Give us courage to step out boldly, to act generously, and without fear. Use our gifts to accomplish more than we could possibly imagine, so that, through us, your kingdom might come and your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

Ending

Jesus taught us, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."

May God grant us the vision, strength, and courage to proclaim God's message of peace, whether welcome or unwelcome, for the sake of all God's beloved children.
Amen.

Sentences

God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46.1

I lift up my eyes to the hills – from where will my help come? My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth. Psalm 121.1,2

This I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning.

Lamentations 3.21-23

Those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary they shall walk and not faint.

Isaiah 40.31

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Matthew 5.9

Prayer

We meet in the presence of God.

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

Remembrance

Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping: those who have died for their country in conflict; those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity.

Exhortation

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
we will remember them.

We will remember them.

Last Post

Silence is kept

Reveille

Prayer

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn

Our God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of thy throne,
thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
will bear us all away;
we fade and vanish, as a dream
dies at the op'ning day.

Our God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last,
and our eternal home.

Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Laying of Wreaths

Kohima Epitaph

When you go home
tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow
we gave our today.

The Naval Prayer

Act of Commitment

Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service.

Will you strive for all that makes for peace?

We will.

Will you seek to heal the wounds
of war?

We will.

Will you work for a just future for all humanity?

We will.

Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us that have not yet been cast out by love: may we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people, and live lives of justice, courage and mercy;
through Jesus Christ our risen redeemer.

Amen.

National Anthem

God save our gracious Queen!
Long live our noble Queen!
God save the Queen!
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.

Blessing

God grant to the living grace, to the departed rest, to the Church, the Queen,
the Commonwealth and all people, unity, peace and concord, and to us and all God's servants, life everlasting;

and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.
