Epiphany 3

First Hymn

Bind us together Lord,
Bind us together
With chords that cannot be broken
Bind us together Lord
Bind us together Lord
Bind us together in love

There is only one God
There is only one king
There is only one body
That is why we sing

Bind us together Lord ...

Fit for the glory of God,
Purchased by his precious son, Born with the right to be clean
For Jesus the victory has won

Bind us together Lord ...

We are the family of God
We are his promise divine
We are his chosen desire
We are his glorious new wine

Bind us together Lord ...

Last Hymn

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known, will you let my life be grown in you, and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you, and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen,
And admit to what I mean
in you, and you in me?

Will you love the you you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, Through my sight and touch and sound
in you, and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you, and you in me.
